

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2300 - HB 2572

February 4, 2004

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires employers withholding child support from an employee's compensation to report certain information to the appropriate court in case the business files for bankruptcy or ceases operations. The information to be reported is the name of employees subject to income assignment and their last known address and the address of their new employer or source of other income.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

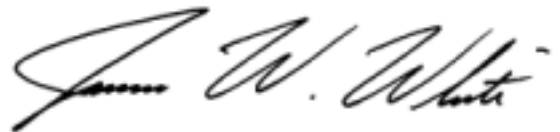

Increase Local Govt. Revenues - Not Significant

Increase Local Govt. Expenditures - Not Significant

The bill has no effect on child support collection efforts in the Department of Human Services. It is assumed that any increase in expenditures to the state trial court system from additional filings will be recovered from assessment of additional court costs.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
